1	I liked Ottawa's better.	12/27/2018 9:44 PM
2	Casino was fun and I like that it started after we had some networking time. really great choice of activity.	12/21/2018 1:31 PM
3	I loved the live music/band last year at convention. Would have loved to have that :)	12/20/2018 3:19 PM
4	We needed more time at the tables. Just got into the poker and it ended.	12/19/2018 2:36 PM
5	. Did not appreciate the "bidding" for each table to get to the buffet. . The pasta meal was so so. . Not enough gaming tables.	12/19/2018 7:48 AM
6	I love the concept and the fact that you keep trying different things.	12/17/2018 2:30 PM
7	could have played longer	12/17/2018 2:23 PM
8	However, the food was the worst meal of the entire convention.	12/17/2018 1:19 PM
9	I did not get a chance to play as the tables were full but I had nice visits with other people not playing.	12/17/2018 12:41 PM
10	Fun idea with the gambling. Different from other years, and for those who were participating, it was lots of fun. A very different kind of 'icebreaker' to get to know fellow CAPS members.	12/16/2018 8:59 PM

CAPS 2018 POST-CONVENTION SURVEY

11	I found myself sticking to my table and not socializing very much. Not sure why.	12/16/2018 7:31 PM
12	Pasta? You gotta be kidding.....	12/16/2018 5:16 PM
13	The people were great Casino was fun The meal was ok -	12/16/2018 3:57 PM
14	I have loved previous off-site events. Also missed the sense of close family.	12/15/2018 3:17 PM
15	I'm concerned that the Foundation didn't make any money by people using their fun money to bid on items. I also think that the whole auction thing has seen its time - need something new. And the auctioneer is not very effective.	12/14/2018 7:43 PM
16	Unfortunately, there was no activity to engage people who did not wish to say the tables, so they left really early. Otherwise, very enjoyable	12/14/2018 7:38 PM
17	Unfortunately, there was no activity to engage people who did not wish to say the tables, so they left really early. Otherwise, very enjoyable	12/14/2018 7:27 PM
18	Mostly because I wasn't feeling well, but the food wasn't great either.	12/14/2018 11:39 AM
19	The use of play money was a good idea, however the amount was too much in order to raise real dollars.	12/14/2018 11:24 AM
20	- not enough room for everyone to gamble - worry the way structured didn't make much for Foundation - all of it seemed to fall on the shoulders of one busy person - would have preferred past events with performers (Ravi maybe could do a salsa lesson and we could salsa!) - no protein on menu	12/14/2018 11:10 AM
21	The food was rather disappointing. 3 pasta and no meat left me with very limited food. The auction was too late for me, I ended up missing it.	12/14/2018 8:10 AM
22	The evening was fantastic, but there was a issue with the food. Three pasta dishes were on the buffet, and those of us with dietary requirements had been told to show a special card to the serving staff. However, the Captain that night didn't seem to know about this. It meant a long and awkward conversation until he agreed to ask the chef to make us scrambled egg.	12/14/2018 2:41 AM
23	Don't think the structure of the evening worked well for fundraising. Years past had a better format.	12/13/2018 10:23 PM
24	I didn't like the casino idea. It would be great to have something that brings us all together in a playful way.	12/13/2018 8:55 PM
25	I thought it was fun, but I did think there was a missed opportunity to raise more money for the foundation. I actually felt the casino part took away from the event, not added to it.	12/13/2018 7:59 PM
26	Tough with many more people than tables and that many people left early. Still a great time!	12/13/2018 7:13 PM
27	The food didnt have any gluten free dairy free options (except the cauliflower soup, which was great) and the games were set up for folks to lose (like Vegas) instead of win, like some other casino nights, which would have made it more fun for attendees.	12/13/2018 6:52 PM
28	No protein on menu. For a $100 event people are expecting a decent meal. I heard lots of comments in the line about this.	12/13/2018 6:08 PM
29	I was too tired to stay for the auction. Silent bid auction items would have been fun too.	12/13/2018 6:00 PM
30	not a gambler, and disappointed in food. drinks were also very expensive	12/13/2018 5:45 PM
31	Well thought out and executed.	12/13/2018 5:42 PM
32	Not enough room at tables for gambling. Would have preferred dancing and/or live music. Missing protein in menu	12/13/2018 5:06 PM
33	Didn't know how to play any of the games.	12/13/2018 4:51 PM
34	The food was poor and the casino portion was not my interest.	12/13/2018 4:27 PM
35	Gambling isn't that social. Not enough seats for everyone.	12/13/2018 4:01 PM
36	The bidding mixture for prizes with a combination of chips and real money was a bit confusing.	12/13/2018 3:38 PM
37	The best one I can remember was the one we had in Halifax, Where we crammed into the lobster restaruant, it was packed but awesome. that was great, Also the one we did the grouse Mountain and dinner, that was great. It's an energy thing and when we go back into the same space we have been all day for 2 days, energy gets lost. Just a thought	12/13/2018 3:36 PM

38	I feel you needed more auction items. Creating sponsor partnerships with hotel brands, airlines, National car rentals, national restaurant brands (we travel and eat a lot), etc., might be very synergistic, and, would be smaller packages that would net more money.	12/13/2018 3:21 PM
39	I'm not a gambler but the others seemed to enjoy it.	12/13/2018 3:10 PM
40	Largely due to the people! And I got lucky, struck it big at the roulette table!	12/13/2018 2:50 PM
41	the poker tables were a great idea.... would have been fun to play a little longer...	12/13/2018 2:49 PM
42	Would have been nice to allow much more time playing the tables. I felt it was cut quite short and there was disappointment for those who were enjoying it.	12/13/2018 2:48 PM

1	I had even bought a ticket to go to even if I could not go. $$ to support the foundation.	1/20/2019 6:57 PM
2	Less work during the convention!	12/31/2018 11:16 AM
3	If the ticket price was lower or included in Convention registration, I believe there would be a bigger # of attendees. More info about auction items and ways to donate to the foundation - in advance - would make it easier to consider and then commit. The evening itself could then be more of a 'Celebration' of the year's fundraising results.	12/24/2018 6:36 PM
4	Not sure. I have always went, this year I just wanted time to enjoy good friends. There never seems enough time to be with the people you actually know - without being exclusive.	12/19/2018 2:05 PM
5	The meal would need to improve significantly.	12/17/2018 1:19 PM

CAPS 2018 POST-CONVENTION SURVEY

6	I certainly feel there should be a fundraiser. I just have no funds to be raised from me!	12/17/2018 9:02 AM
7	Might be a good idea to have the foundation night s part of the whole convention package <input type="checkbox"/>	12/16/2018 3:57 PM
8	lower the ticket price and make the event more engaging, meaningful, fun. One idea - Improv where audience gets to participate	12/15/2018 6:29 PM
9	I often go, but had another things I wanted to do in Vancouver this year.	12/15/2018 12:33 AM
10	I would have liked to know the items to be available for auction long before the event (perhaps in the Convention booklet) so could think about purchasing sooner. Unfortunately, I feel the lack of notice resulted in items selling at very low prices	12/14/2018 7:38 PM

17	see above	12/13/2018 10:42 PM

19	More bonding experiences that are fun. Perhaps a large group game.	12/13/2018 8:55 PM
20	I have attended many in the past. Sometimes you need a time-out from Convention to "visit" with friends.	12/13/2018 6:39 PM
21	Not sure if I'll attend again	12/13/2018 6:08 PM
22	Casino was fun. I'd like to see us get away from the 'coaching' type prizes, and towards more trips... wine auction... Fun things for successful speakers (who don't really want coaching), but who like to support the Foundation and buy fun things.	12/13/2018 6:08 PM
23	great cause	12/13/2018 6:00 PM
24	I would rather just donate	12/13/2018 5:15 PM
